CuriousCity TC: Community Curiosity Event

Art in buses, community conversations, Ricardo Levins Morales

Wednesday, December 2, 2015 from 6:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Intermedia Arts

Please join us for the culminating Community Curiosity event of CuriousCity TC, a project that has been placing thought-provoking art on Twin Cities buses throughout the summer and fall. The posters, created by artist Ricardo Levins Morales and mounted among the advertisements on Metro buses, are designed to encourage conversation and provoke curiosity about strangers. The project is the brainchild of Levins Morales, a well known artist/activist based in Minneapolis, who uses his art to create change within individuals and society at large.

The event will be held on Wednesday, December 2 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Guests are encouraged to come with open, curious minds. It will be an enjoyable, interactive evening filled with questions, art and discussion as well as spoken word from local artist, emcee, and poet, Tish Jones. There will be light refreshments.

This event is open to the public. The suggested donation is the cost of a bus fare, but no one will be turned away for lack of funds. It will take place at Intermedia Arts (2822 Lyndale Ave S., Minneapolis, MN 55408.) This is a scent-free/fragrance-free event and the facilities are fully ADA compliant.
